Why Venture Way Out of the Box

Or why an engineer-turned-futurist now listens to channelers

Let's say your company tells you that your job has been moved to Lagos, Nigeria, and if you want to keep the job you need to move. It's the only job you've got and the market is very soft, so in order to pay the bills you agree to move. But you've never been to Africa, let alone Lagos, and your move is coming up in two months. The culture is different, the climate is different, transportation and food . . . and the government—all are different. What do you do?

Well, of course you do your best to find out what Lagos is like beforehand—where you can live, how to get around, where the workplace is located, etc. You get on the internet, you look for someone (perhaps in your company) who has been there, you get maps (or go to MapQuest)—you try to find out before the fact what this new place is going to be like and what you're going to have to do to get by.

Now let's push the metaphor a bit. What if there is no information on Lagos. You can't find anyone who's been there. Like one of those Soviet science cities, it's not on the map and there is nothing written about it. You're almost certain that it is going to be very different from what is familiar—that your life is certainly going to be changed—but you don't know in what way.

In a sense, that's what we're up against as human beings. We're riding an exponential wave of change that—whether defined in technological, governmental, agricultural, climatic, economic and financial, or energy terms—is rapidly moving into a space for which there is no precedent. No one alive has ever been there before.

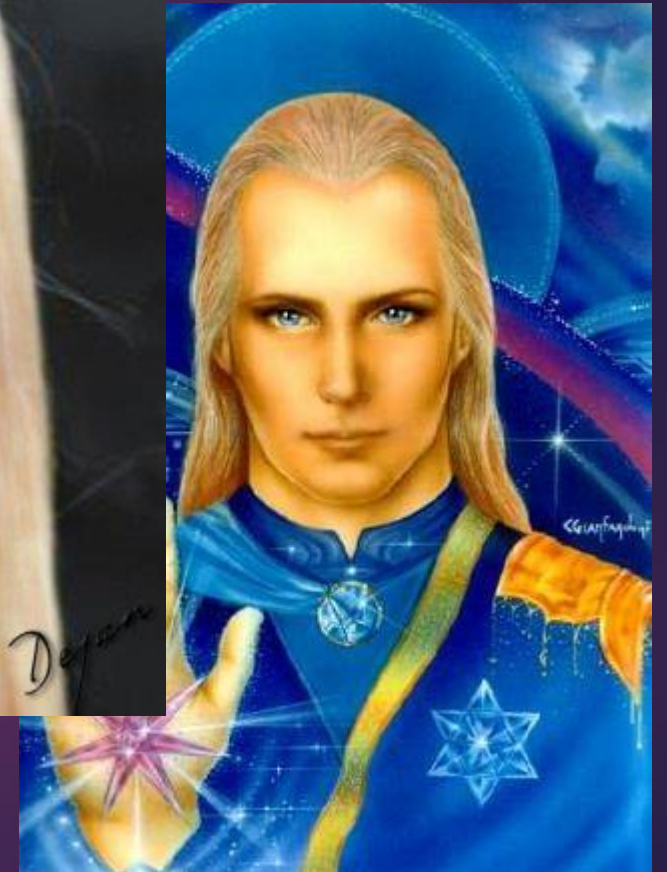

It's one thing to be riding one of these vectors of change, but stand back and ask yourself—as I did a number of years ago—"How is it that all of this stuff is happening at the same time?" Is this random, or is this broad-based manifest change a reflection of some underlying force that is driving the shift?

Now, of course, the internal conversation becomes metaphysical and theological—and long. If you think the world is deterministic—like a big machine—then the notion that there might be a common influence driving all of these diverse areas is hard if not impossible to hold. You find yourself necessarily with a myopic perspective, looking at the individual areas of change, locked into the current historical era (if even that big of a picture), and presuming no significant interdependence. After all, how is that the geopolitical upheaval in northern Africa relates to agricultural policies in the U.S.? Aren't those two different disciplines . . . whose memberships really don't talk to each other?

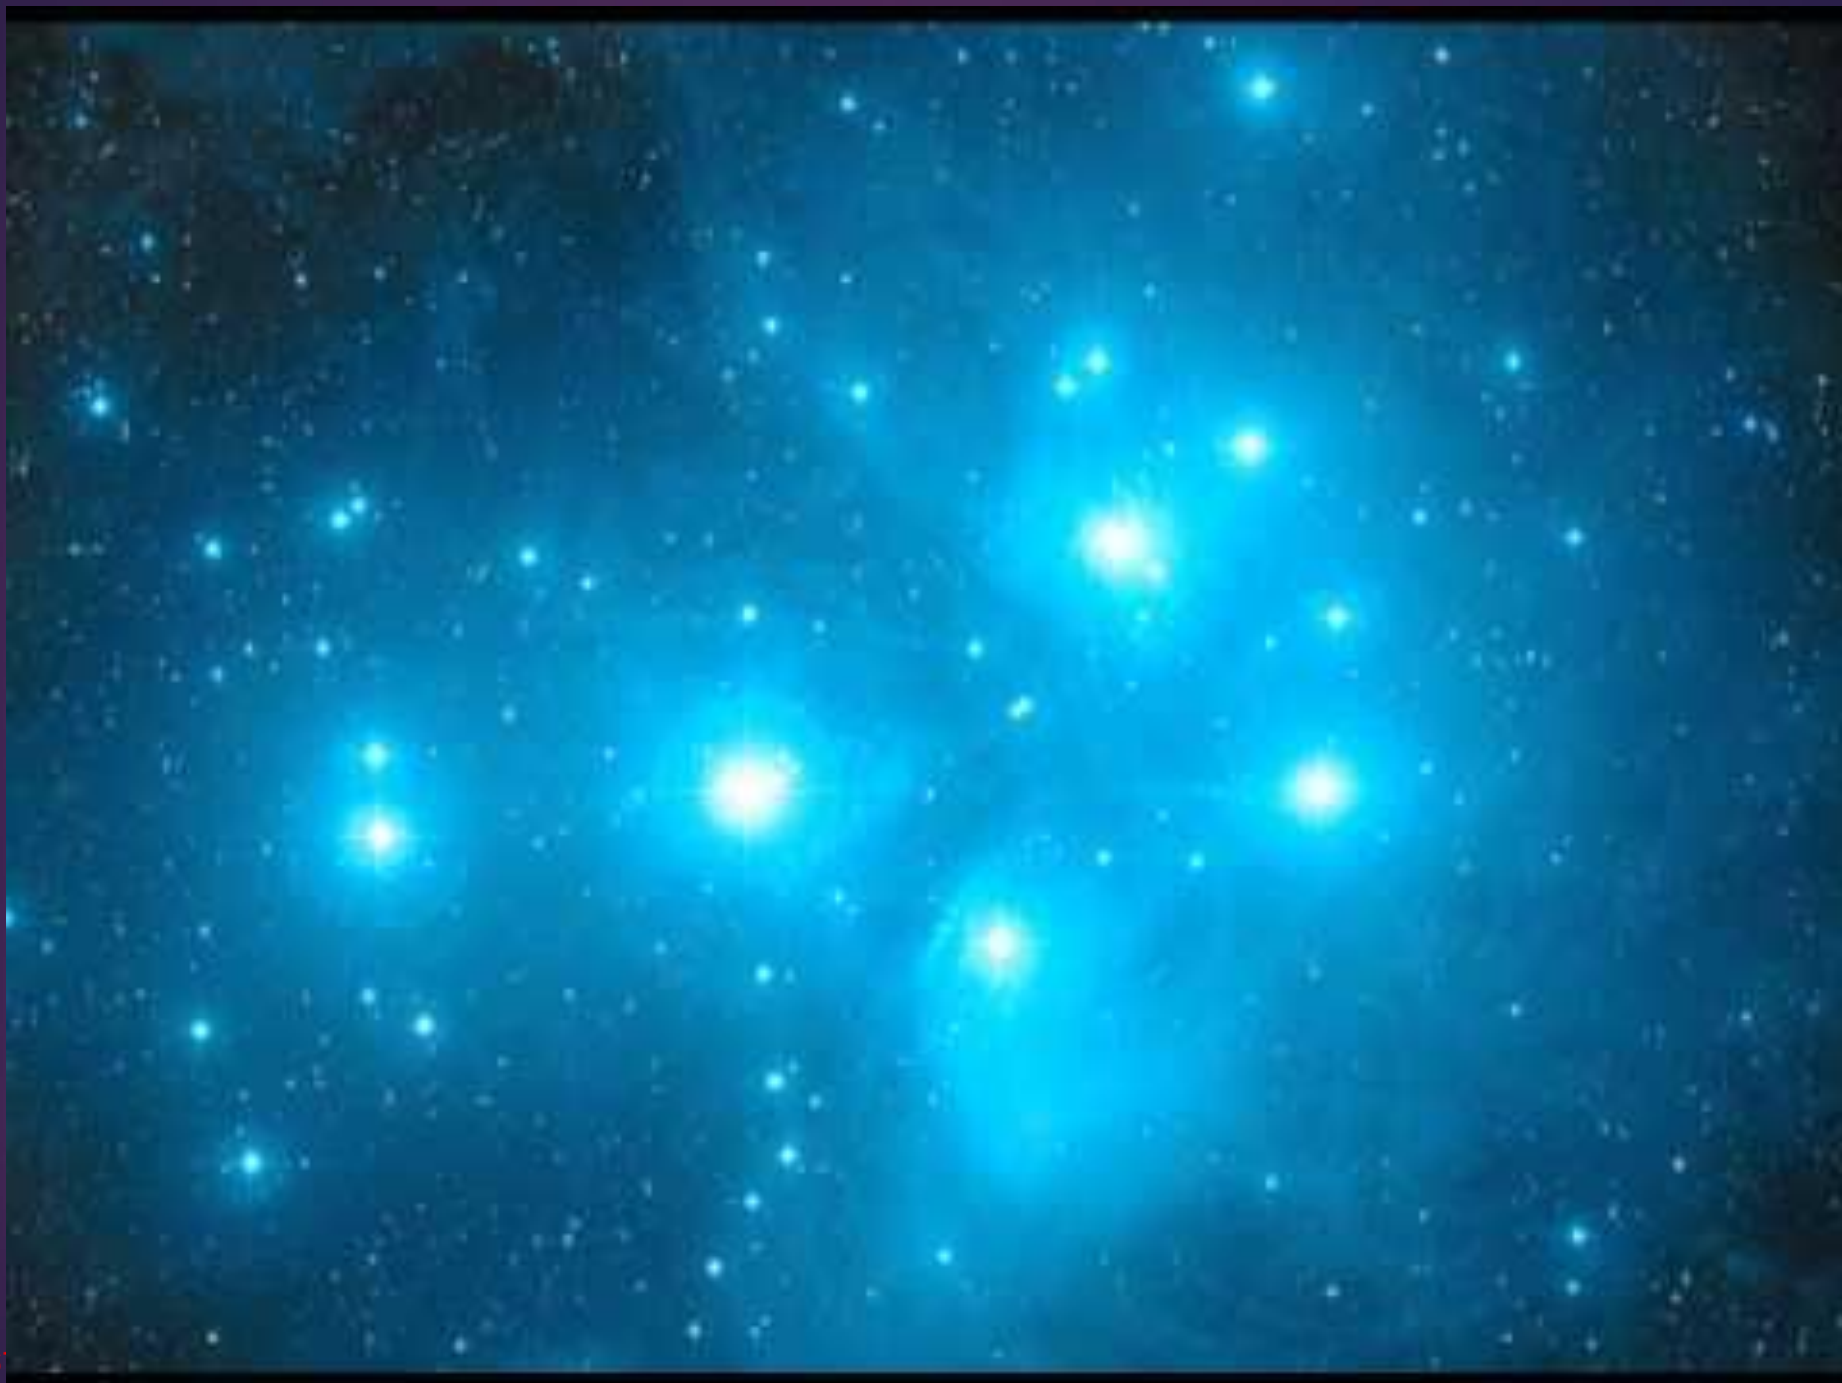

Then, there's the politics of the whole thing. Science, being the religion that it is, regularly attempts to excommunicate those heretics within the "church" that, like Galileo, stray from the accepted theology. So, it's rather important, if you want any kind of a conventional career in science, to not “Greetings. We are the Arcturian Council. We are pleased to connect with all of you.

We are very excited to witness the tremendous leaps forward that many of you are making at this time. Now, often we speak to you as a collective. We speak about all of humanity and what you are experiencing as a group, but right now we are speaking to those of you who as individuals have been riding the waves that have been coming in from the far reaches of the Milky Way Galaxy. There are many amongst the awakened collective who have been able to take in the Series of waves of transforming energy from center of galaxy and sun

Political, economic and social events that transform/transmute into a new world

Supports matter/energy transformation where matter is created with intention

Has had less flow in the past; is currently at a greater flow, in anticipation of jump to higher level of organization

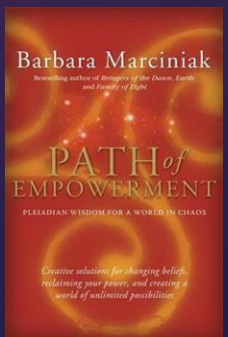

As the energy streams from the Central Sun, it receives energy to transmit itself from Source/God (Like oceans and Sun)

The Uncreated One:

Inside the Pleroma, dwells the Uncreated One (the First Being, the Reality, the Mighty Splendor), as well as what one might call revelatory expressions of dynamism, or Gods and Goddesses.

Nickola Tesla, described the process of the Uncreated One emanating the Gods and Goddesses of the Pleroma as:

The primary substance, thrown into infinitesimal whirls of prodigious velocity

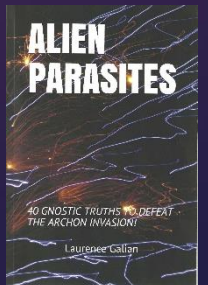

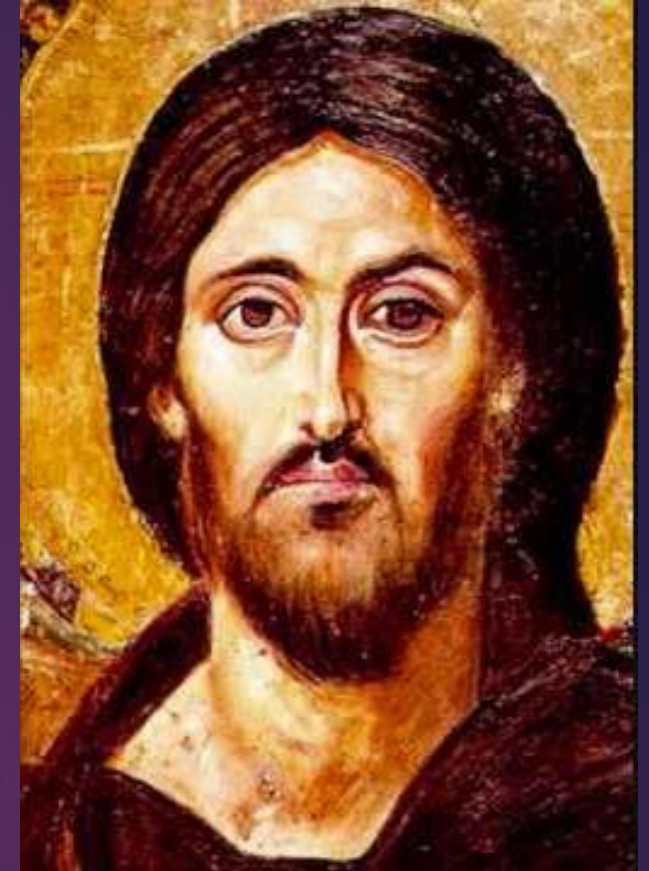

The Aeons:

- Inside the Pleroma are a group of glorious beings named the Aeons.
- Emanations of the Absolute Reality.
- Always exist in pairs, a masculine and feminine principle; in other words, each Aeon has its own consort.
- They are whirling energy vortices.
- They bear a great resemblance to angels and exist as beings of Light.
- They design life-form
- Their spiritual purpose in originating genetic life-forms is for the purpose of uttering an infinity of Divine Expressions.
- The Aeons created the Human Genome.

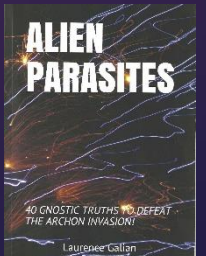

The Christos:

The Paraclete (Helper) from the Unknown who reveals . . . the discovery of self – the divine spark within you.

Christos:

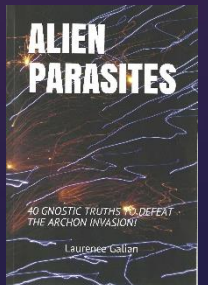

- An Aeon, dwelling in the Pleroma
- Materialized as the Solar Logos (the Spiritual Sun), the deity that governs the entire solar system
- The Sun is the most external manifestation
- Is the source of all life on earth
- Brings about order, harmony, spiritual insight and the awakening of the divine potential within each human being

Sophia:

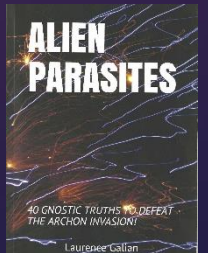

Mother of the universe . . . whom some call love.

Sophia left the Galactic Nucleus (The Pleroma), because she had a creative vision of intelligent living human beings (mirror images of the Aeons).

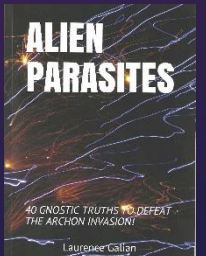

Sophia:

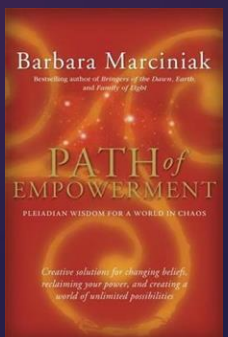

- Sophia is an Aeon.
- Sophia is how energy takes form.
- Her soul and the world are one.
- Sophia is the Great Mother Goddess known by countless names throughout the millennia.
- Some people think She is the Holy Spirit of the Trinity
- Today, She is often referred to as Gaia or Mother Earth.
- Her consort in the Pleroma is the Christos. She is the Bride of the Christos.

Christos and his consort, Sophia, now exist as the soul-spirit of the Earth located in the very center of the planet.

Remember, the material world is only one part of reality. The invisible and spiritual realms, along with many other planes of existence, all seek to enter and participate in this time period of accelerated energy.

- ▶ Have been at this for a very long time
- ▶ Samaria, Egypt
- ▶ Infiltrated and targeted key groups and individuals
- ▶ Extraordinary capabilities: shape shifting, influence thoughts
- ▶ Have been planning for these days and years for very long
- ▶ May have had a change of heart

It was vital for these vampiric-like entities to keep us in ignorance of their existence, for once we began to wake up to their covert operations within our minds, their gig is up, as they would then have no power over us. Weissman wrote, "Once a race becomes aware of these vampires, the battle is already half won."

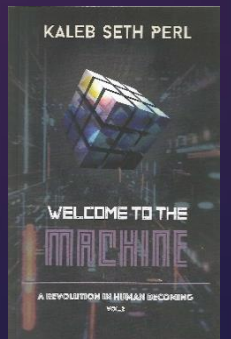

The Machine

We live in a Machine

The Machine represents your social-cultural-technological constructs that manage the reality perception of your current experience.

The Controllers – Deep State/Dark Forces

- ▶ Other worldly forces – Archons/Reptilians
- ▶ Controlling families
- ▶ Investment firms
- ▶ Banking corporations
- ▶ Intelligence organizations
- ▶ Media
- ▶ Governments – legislative/judicial/executive
- ▶ Academia/science

Matters have been very carefully controlled and orchestrated (by outside forces) – and continue to be so. The extent of the controllers' planning is very impressive.

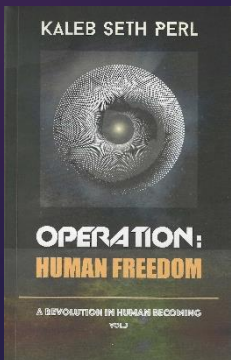

The power structures of the Machine create reality boxes – perceptual systems – that it then conditions people to fit into.

It's Rigged

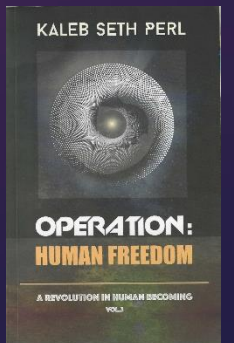

- ▶ Everything in mainstream media is part of the trickery
- ▶ Play off different sides to fake debate
- ▶ Everything you know, or think you know, is part of the Game filter through which life play out
 - ▶ Everything you know about life is contaminated
 - ▶ Because all people's perceptions fall within the same bubble, there is familiarity and solidarity in this contamination
 - ▶ Trust and faith in external social and cultural bodies is no longer credible
 - ▶ Individual perceptions being used against you as a divisive tool
- ▶ What most people believe in are varying versions of supplied programs

Most, if not all, current and historical social and cultural institutions cannot be trusted. They have deliberately withheld important knowledge from you.

“Feelings of powerlessness, inferiority and inadequacy come initially not from the individual themselves but from their surrounding social milieu.”

“Hopelessness is an op –
and it’s planet-wide.”

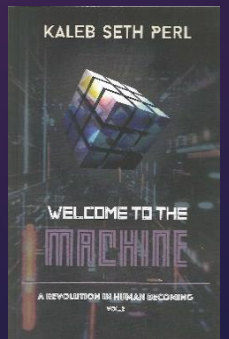

- Jon Rappaport

But, the absurdity of the current situation enables a breaking up of the controlling narrative and the requirement of the system to find a new 'center'.

Methods of the Controllers

Agenda:

- ▶ Separation, fragmentation, and division of humanity
- ▶ Generates discordant energetics through entertainment, religion, government, society, relationships
- ▶ Like living in a tunnel of programming
- ▶ Things you 'see' and 'hear' can be technologically manipulated and corrupted
- ▶ Can be engineered to a degree that most would not believe possible
- ▶ Like living within a cacophony: dissonance, jagged soundscapes

Illusion and Deception

Memes

Meme:

Memes

- ▶ Produce fear
- ▶ Orchestrate social pressure
- ▶ Generate fashion
- ▶ Establish convention
- ▶ Manufacture constraints: education, religion, government
- ▶ Weaponize controllers objectives
- ▶ Utilize captured media: news, entertainment, sports, etc.

79 Predictions Of Climatic Doom Since 1970 – Score So Far: 0 & 48

Published on April 11, 2021

Written by Climate Change Dispatch

Image: The Conversation

A new peer-reviewed paper published in the International Journal of Global Warming identifies 79 “apocalyptic” predictions formulated since 1970 by “researchers and activists” who “predict cataclysmic events” resulting from “catastrophic climate change.”

EXAMPLE: CORONAVIRUS

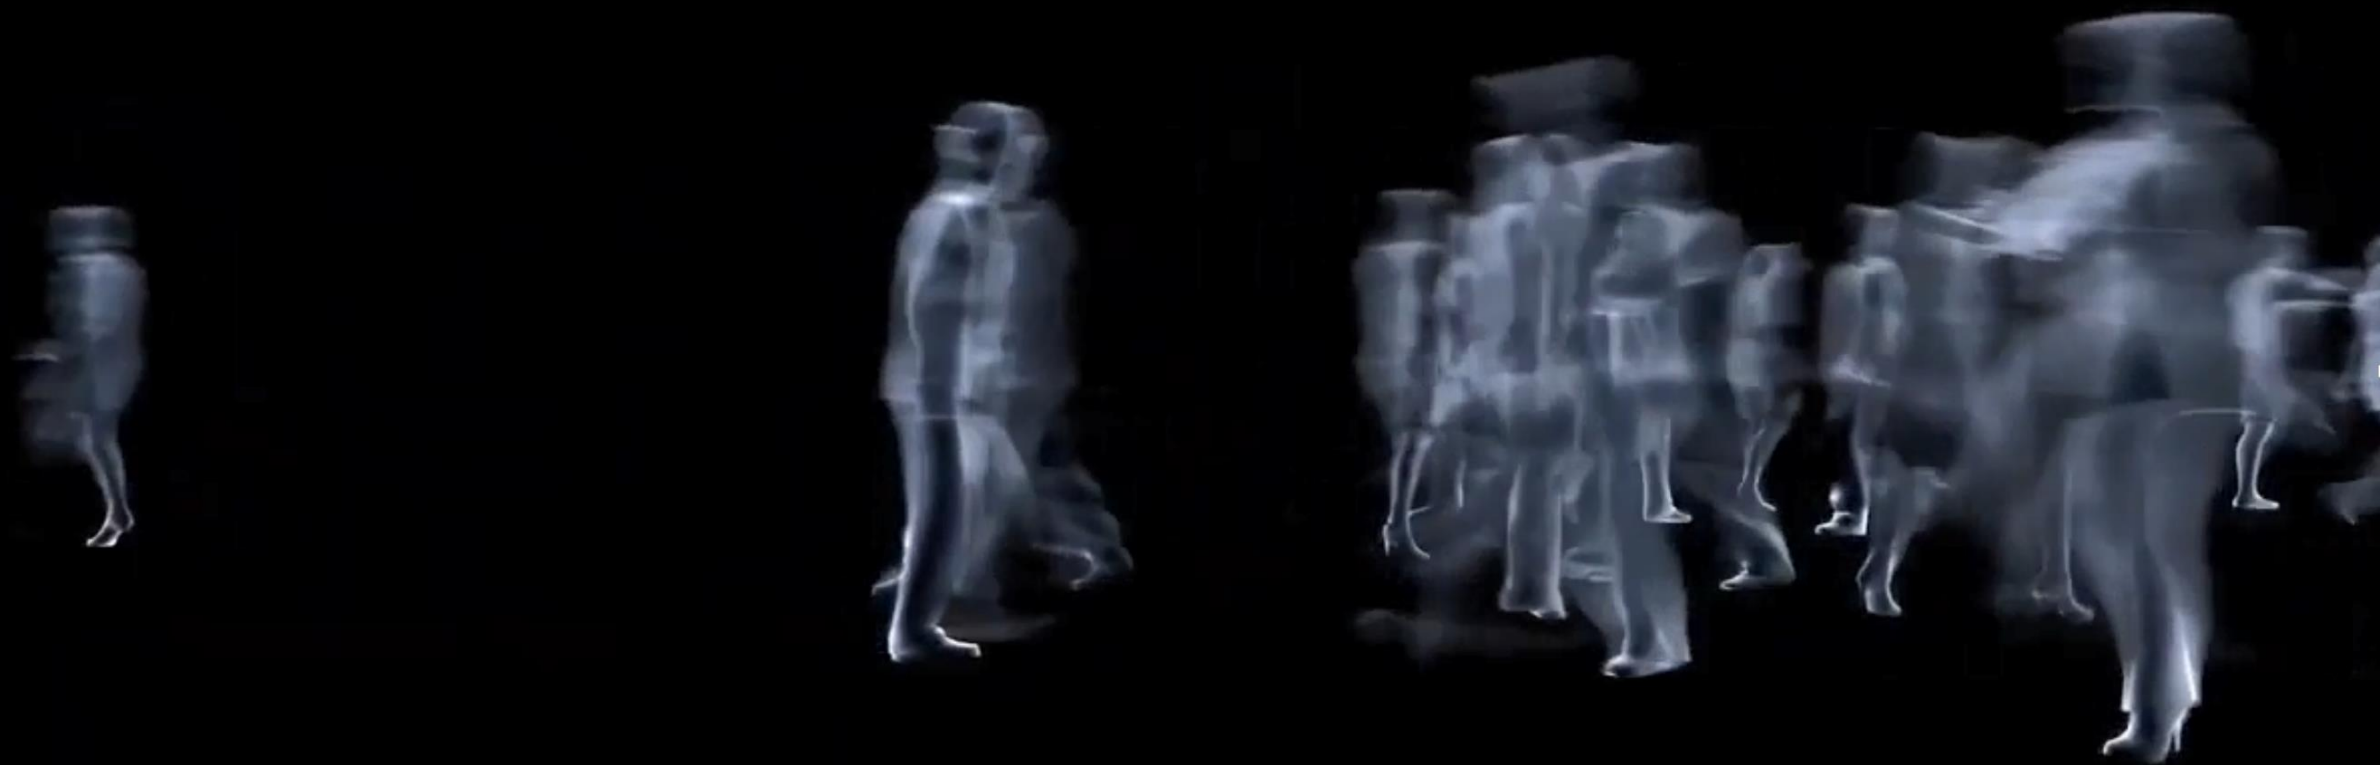

Like a multi-headed hydra, the virus has a countless legion of effects:

- In addition to making people physically sick, some of whom die,
- The virus makes people afraid,
- creates enormous stress,
- changes governmental policies around the world,
- impacts the financial markets,
- inspires power grabs and profiteering from all sorts of unsavory people and institutions,
- feeds into and provides a pretext for totalitarian agendas,
- affects how often we leave our homes,
- influences what we think about, where we place our attention,
- what we wear when we go out in public,
- transforms the way we interact with each other and
- renders our future completely uncertain, in that it might either destroy our civilization or herald in a new historical epoch.

Covid-19 has so gotten into our heads that it has even intruded, in one form or another, into many people's dreams.

Significance

An unresolved issue of SARS-CoV-2 disease is that patients often remain positive for viral RNA as detected by PCR many weeks after the initial infection in the absence of evidence for viral replication. We show here that SARS-CoV-2 RNA can be reverse-transcribed and integrated into the genome of the infected cell and be expressed as chimeric transcripts fusing viral with cellular sequences. Importantly, such chimeric transcripts are detected in patient-derived tissues. Our data suggest that, in some patient tissues, the majority of all viral transcripts are derived from integrated sequences. Our data provide an insight into the consequence of SARS-CoV-2 infections that may help to explain why patients can continue to produce viral RNA after recovery.

THE FRANKLIN SCANDAL

A Story of Powerbrokers, Child Abuse & Betrayal

by Nick Bryant

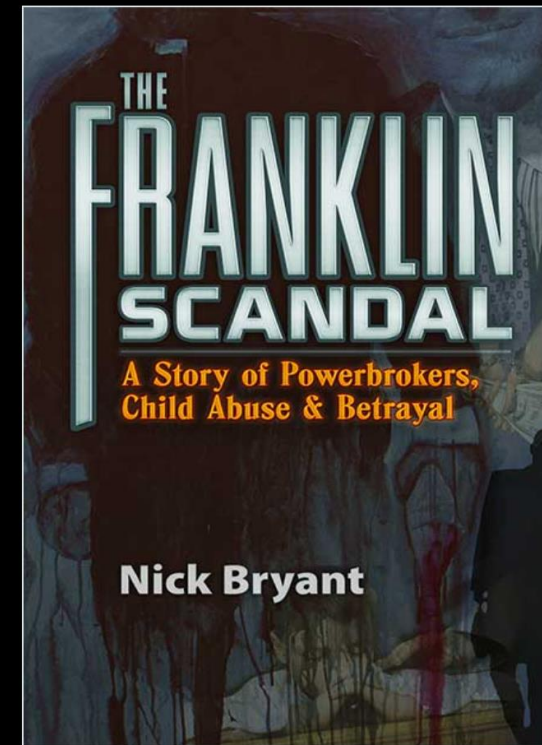

The FRANKLIN SCANDAL is the story of a nationwide pedophile ring that pandered children to a cabal of the rich and powerful. The ring's pimps were a pair of political powerbrokers who had access to the highest levels of our government. Nebraska legislators attempted to expose the network in 1989 and 1990, but the legislators' efforts were followed by a rash of mysterious deaths and the overpowering responses of federal and local law enforcement, including the FBI and Justice Department, which effected an immaculate cover-up of the trafficking network.

The publisher is donating 50% of the book's proceeds to organizations that assist abused children.

Locals say Epstein was flying in underage girls long after his conviction for sex crimes—and authorities did nothing to stop him. “It was like he was flaunting it,” says an employee at the airstrip on St. Thomas. “But it was said that he always tipped really well, so everyone overlooked it.”

Humanity is deeply immersed in a world wide spiritual transformation designed to clear away a vast accumulation of fearful beliefs from the human gene pool that carry energetic patterns of pain and separation – to open the way for new, pronounced frequencies of higher awareness to be available throughout the multiverse.

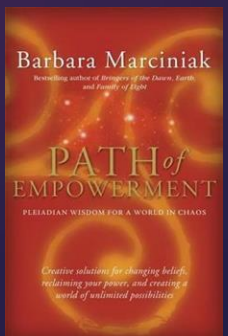

There is always a continual movement within reality. This movement creates a dynamism – an energy that holds the game together. Yet for a long time now, this dynamic energy has been out of balance. We sense that the ‘inside workings’ of your reality is shifting. And this creates its own chaotic energies.

The purpose of the nanosecond is to clean the human gene pool of fear – a conditioned fear of personal power

The Shift

- ▶ The transformation is energetic – a change in “the Force”
 - ▶ The underlying ‘electrical/magnetic/scalar’ field from which we all emerge
- ▶ The change is the result of energy waves from the center of our galaxy (and maybe others) and the changing composition of the local energetic environment in which our solar system is traveling
- ▶ These energetic waves effect humans directly and significantly influence our sun – which, in turn, sends out energy that is different from the past

Two very distinct directions of thought, based on the value of life, express the tension of this great divide.

- A belief in a world of hostility uses the platform of 'might is right' to promote killing and violence as a means to an end.
- In direct opposition, a belief in a peacefully empowered existence places immense value on nature, and all life is held in significant regard.

Coldest in Recorded History in Spain, China, Canada

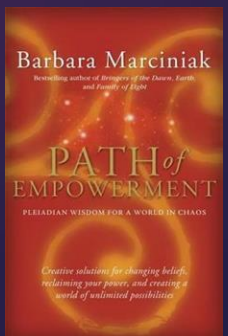

Published on January 8, 2021

It is too bad CO₂ has betrayed the human race by not warming us as scientists swore it would. With temperatures plunging to the lowest levels in recorded history in Spain, China, and Canada, it would be more than nice to have something breaking the advancing cold and snow, which is on its way to overwhelming people and local governments in the northern regions.

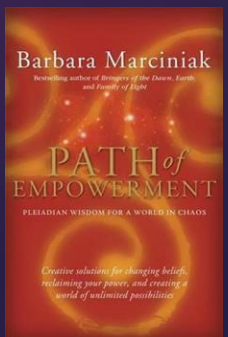

A record-breaking blizzard hit Baffin Island in Canada shaking houses and crushing cabins. In mid-December, 7+ feet of snow ☒ stranded thousands of Japanese motorists, and the Washington Post ☒ reported that another 7 feet fell on January 1.

How you see yourself

When you believe in your self-worth within the greater plan of existence, a larger purpose to life always comes into play, sometimes revealing scenarios that are seemingly beyond your current understanding.

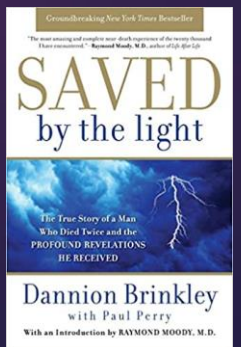

In the Game, the dark forces play their parts well and are too powerful to be destroyed; they must be met and transformed through compassionate understanding of their purpose.

“The person born with a talent they are meant to use will find their greatest happiness in using it.

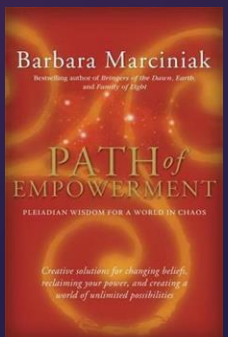

–Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

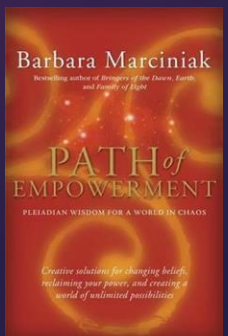

A new sense of . . .

How you look at the world

Earth is always alert and ever aware and works in great cooperation with the thoughtforms – the ideas and feelings – that she receives. You must have respect for the earth.

As your beliefs change, allow yourself to face the shocking discovery that nothing is exactly as it appears to be.

The mistake that many make is to create active resistance against the control of the Game – this awakens the Machine to your presence. There are many ways it can find you and manipulate you. More ways than you are aware of.

- Hold no grudge or resentment, for victimhood is a very powerful limiting belief that stifles your natural creative process.
- Cultivate a healthy outlook
- Fortify your will by accepting responsibility for your life.

A new sense of . . .

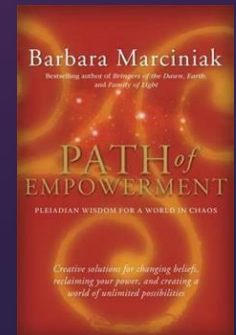

What is important

It is imperative that personal, individual sovereign power now arises within people across this planet, regardless of social and cultural backgrounds.

A deep inner knowing based on innocent trust is required to proceed on the path of empowerment.

The real trick for you is to come back into the game different from when you took a step out. First there must be change within you – a shift in awareness and perceptions.

SOLUTION:

Become a different “you”

The essence of awakening:
Questioning the status quo

A New You

Fundamental Requirements

This is all about a mind shift – the emergence of a new individual and global mind

“You are who you are, and you are where you are because of what you believe about yourself; no matter what you are experiencing, your beliefs form the underlying foundation to create these experiences.”

Beliefs are the programs from which you have built your life experience.

Beliefs are the
thoughts that you hold,
most often without question, about yourself and the world
at large

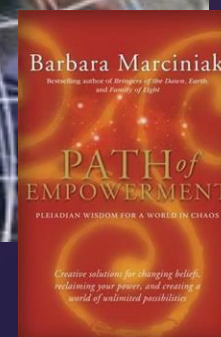

Real power is not intellectualized or delegated – it is felt, lived and experienced. It is also sensed by others as it emanates naturally from a person.

All thoughts produce energetic vibrations, and even though you cannot see these frequencies, the airwaves are full of who you are.

Your beliefs set you up for success or failure:
The choices you make in physical reality are based on what you believe is possible.

Q:

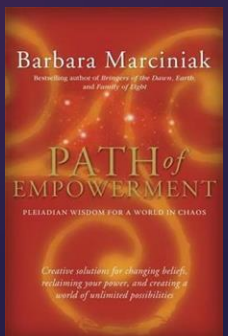

How far are you willing to go, cutting your cords that attach you and have attached humanity for so long, to this reality gameplay? Are you willing to cut away almost everything? We do not me this in terms of physical things so much – rather, your belief systems and structures.

If you change your beliefs . . .
You will change your life

Change your beliefs!

Flexibility is the key for changing your beliefs

Requirements:

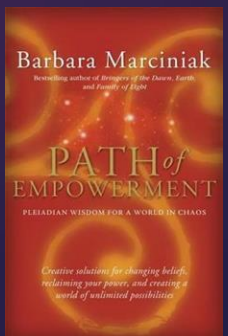

- ▶ Positive view of future
- ▶ Curious – presume there's more to learn
- ▶ Questioning – don't know what you think you know
- ▶ Open minded
- ▶ Everything – even truth – is subjective . . . to you
- ▶ Sensitive to new possibilities
- ▶ Look/listen for messages

You must engage.
You must begin to think for yourself.

A New You

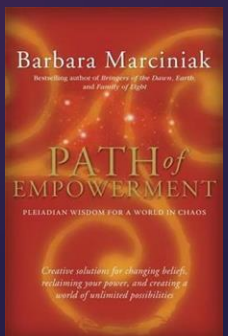

Body

A major part of self-healing involves visualization, practicing mind influencing matter and seeing the desired outcome.

Unresolved emotional traumas

- ▶ Core issues of disease
- ▶ Must elevate thinking about how body works
- ▶ All possible solutions are but a frequency jump from current thinking

Retain your vital energies

- ▶ Coming: much to drain you of vital energies
- ▶ Draining influences will be manufactured as external events
- ▶ Designed to cause social anxiety, unrest, uncertainty, doubts and most of all – fear.

Deep oxygenation restores your body's vitality, and with specific practices it can also be used to clear away the emotional debris stored in the body.

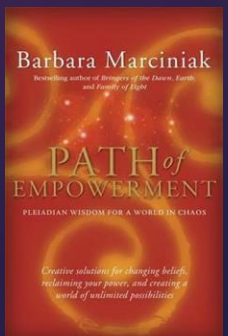

Hydrate your system

- ▶ Drink at least two quarts of good, clean, non-fluorinated water every day
- ▶ Conductor of electricity
- ▶ Accommodates the increase of cosmic electromagnetic frequencies that must be integrated.

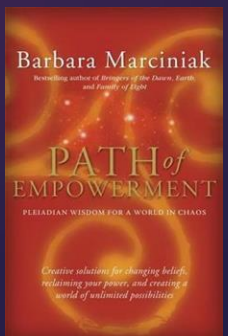

Breath

- ▶ Most direct method for exchanging energy with cosmos
- ▶ It is also the link between cosmic forces and the intricate operations of your body's neurological system
- ▶ The quality of your breath is connected to the amount of breathing you do in natural sunlight

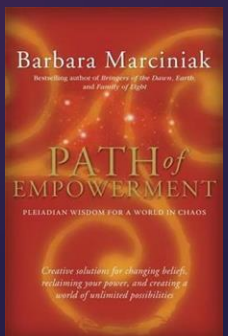

- Essentially, health is a state of mind.
- See your life as filled with inherent meaning and the realization that everything occurs for a very good reason.
- The simple key to a strong immune system is happiness.

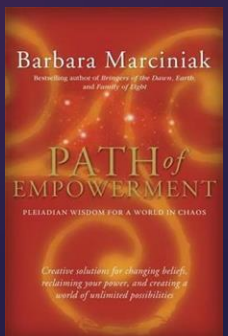

Within an awakened human:

- Vibrant health will be recognized as a sign of personal power, and
- Happiness and peace of mind are the most important ingredients on an emotional level for achieving and maintaining excellent physical and mental well-being.

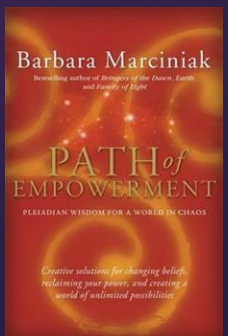

Remember, your body is loyally mirroring your beliefs to you.

A New You

Spirit

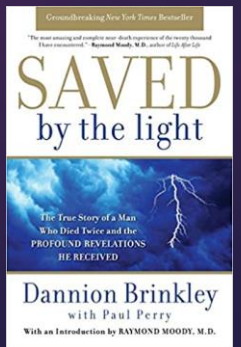

- You are in a severe test to learn how to manage your energy.
- Will you buy fear?
- Will you believe what you are told in every newspaper?
- Or will you pursue the quest to question by trusting yourself and trusting your intuition?.

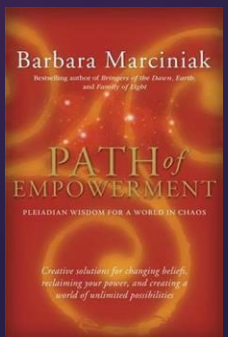

- Discernment is to choose wisely, and with this in mind,
- You must learn to recognize and acknowledge that your feelings and sensations are your body's built-in radar.

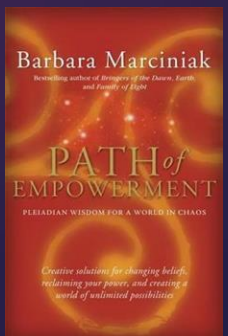

“Without forgiveness, there can be no ripening of the soul, no authentic way of measuring our spiritual evolution. Therefore, forgiveness is indisputably our passport to divine greatness while we’re still engrossed in the experience of our humanity.”

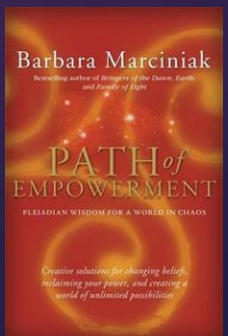

Anger and hatred are the most damaging emotions because they close off the flow of life-force energy to the body.

The ability to both give and receive love, in all its many shades of splendor, holds the true key to healing.

An exuberant state of mind makes you much more receptive to the vibrant effects of the cosmic radiated energy.

A New You

Purpose

You are here to do your part in birthing a new world and becoming a new human in the process.

As your heart opens, you will soar with those who fly . . . and find it challenging to watch and feel with others who choose the depths of disempowerment.

A New You

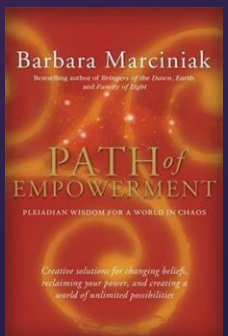

Perspective

Never underestimate your own personal power to change the world, for as you emerge from denial, your probable choices dramatically increase.

A Foot in Two Worlds

Part of your challenge during the transformation is to ride the wave of the multidimensional acceleration, while learning to manage and direct your own awakening consciousness with clear intent by remaining grounded and empowered in 3-D reality.

The storms are coming fast and frequent now for they are there to distract you and to fill your ears so that you have no space or quietness to hear/perceive the real communication that underlies your reality.

YOUR POWER ENDS
WHERE YOUR FEAR BEGINS.

Your body thrives on the energy of love that you feel for yourself. You must affirm and act as if you are worthy of your own love, worthy of life and that life is worth living.

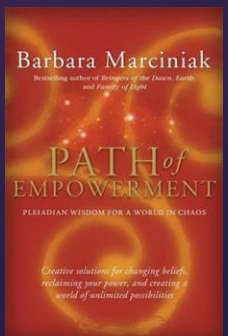

- Learn to think for yourself.
- Recognize the programming of fear that is designed to break down your psychological and spiritual strength – to render you helpless and hopelessly confused.
- Look around. The choice is in front of you.

Living a well-organized, calm, centered life, without the interference of television or electronic diversions, and with plenty of time in nature, will keep your nervous system tuned up and functioning in a smooth and strong capacity.

- Your beliefs decree your availability,
- Your attitude reveals your beliefs.
- Offering thanks and gratitude demonstrates a strong sense of responsibility and willingness to see unexpected change as an opportunity for spiritual growth.

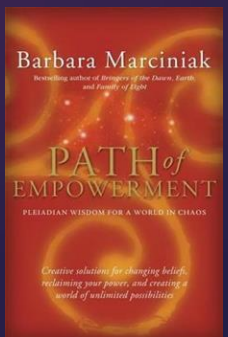

A New You

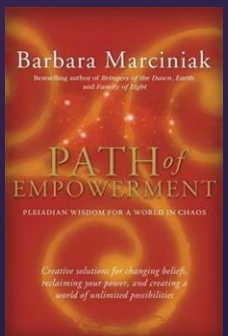

Preparation

The essence of awakening:
Question everything

Your cells, molecules, atoms, and sub-atomic particles are all intelligent; they communicate with one another because their collective job is to respond to your input.

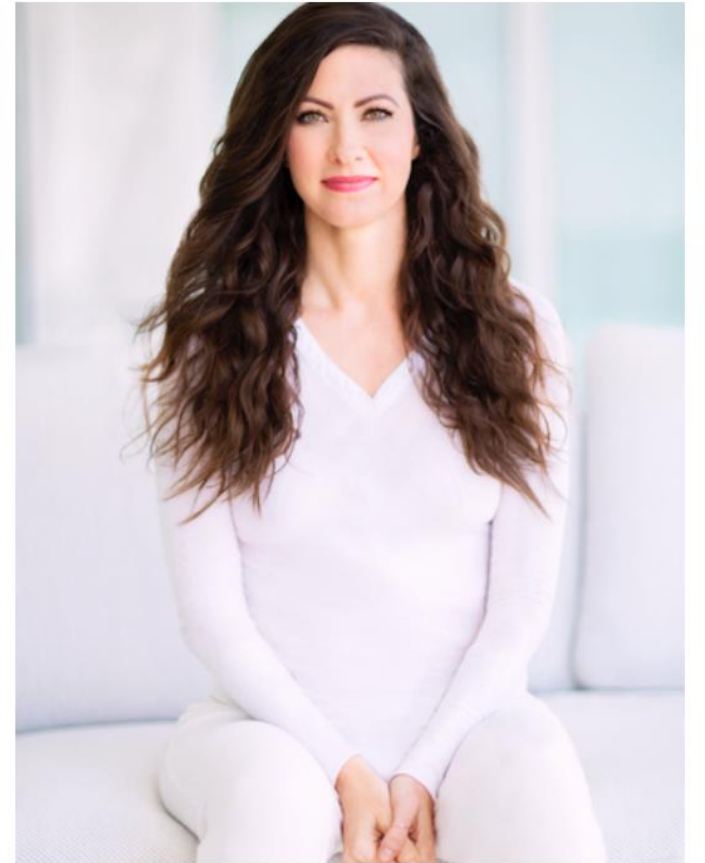

Prioritize your time by becoming really clear about what is essential to your well-being and what is not.

If you consider that a human being has full 'perception spectrum' potential, then due to social conditioning and the mind programming agendas we have already spoken of, then we can say that most individuals utilize around 10 percent or less of that spectrum.

The imperative here – and we stress this – is to make the effort to fit in and merge within your milieu. Do not be in a rush to ‘stand out’ or to appear to be different from those around you. Those of genuine evolved disposition seek to continue their work with the least external hindrance and disruptive attention.

The messages you must hear are subtle. You must pay attention.

You will not fully be able to make the necessary alignments, relations, and pathways without, if first you have not established them within.

So within – so without. The more you push outwardly before you have aligned yourself within, the more you shall find energetic resistance and seeming obstacles.

with 'space fillers' that pull you attention upon the outer events and do not allow you the time or space to focus on deciphering the meanings.

Once your perceptions sense the big change, there is a tendency to relax one's alertness – a sort of sitting back. In this moment, there is a vulnerability to fall into a greater trap awaiting you.

At the moment when you believe you are exiting the game, you are instead re-entering through another door into yet another layer. It is a time for you to be ever more alert.

Everything that happens, happens from now. It is of no matter of the things that occurred previously. They had their time and place – do not continue to linger on them or you will be adding your own energy resonances to older vibratory shells. What matters is what happens from the ‘now moment’ onwards.

COMMENTARY & INSIGHTS
ABOUT OUR APPROACHING FUTURE

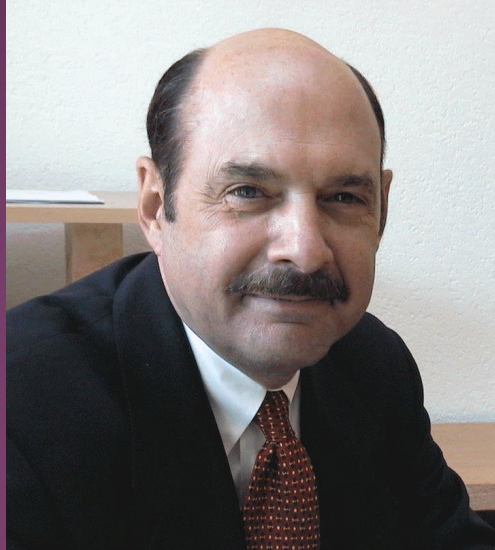

In 1989, Petersen founded The Arlington Institute (TAI), a non-profit, future-oriented research institute. TAI operates on the premise that effective thinking about the future is impossible without casting a very wide net. The think tank serves as a global agent for change by developing new concepts, processes and tools for anticipating the future and translating that knowledge into better present-day decisions.
